

PRESS RELEASE N. 723

25 July 2018

Air Dolomiti and the 75th Venice International Film Festival reach for the sky!

Air Dolomiti celebrates the world's longest-running film festival with a selection of short films from the Festival

From 29 August to 8 September 2018 the spotlight is on the 75th International Film Festival of La Biennale di Venezia, co-sponsored this year by Air Dolomiti, the Lufthansa Group's Italian airline.

To celebrate the event the Verona-based airline has organised an exclusive initiative for passengers with a post-preview showing of a selection of short films throughout the Festival on all our aircraft.

Passengers can view the films free of charge on board through our innovative WiFi Inflight Entertainment platform. Access is rapid and simple and does not require you to download an app.

"Air Dolomiti is delighted to renew its partnership with the Venice Film Festival. This is a unique event which has always attracted works of the very highest standard" commented the President of the airline, Joerg Eberhart.

With customer care always a priority, Air Dolomiti brings film buffs and the simply curious a privileged preview of what's new in the world of cinema, with films, special guests and all the thrills of the red carpet, part of our on-going commitment to local cultural and social development.
