Rome, 25th July 2018

The collaboration between Trenitalia and La Biennale di Venezia continues. Discounts will be available on entrance tickets to the 75th Venice International Film Festival, for which Trenitalia is an official transport provider.

The discounts for the Biennale Cinema 2018, to be held from 29 August to 8 September at the Venice Lido, are available for CartaFRECCIA members, customers with a Frecce ticket to Venice and season ticket holders for regional transport in Veneto and Friuli Venezia Giulia. To obtain the discount, simply show your Trenitalia loyalty card, ticket or season ticket when required.

There are 46 daily connections between Milan and Venice, one every 30 minutes during peak hours with travel time starting from 2 hours, and 40 trains – a combination of Frecciarossa and Frecciargento trains – travelling between Rome and Venice. Two pairs of Frecciabianca trains connect Venice to Lecce.

With this renewed collaboration, FS Group – rooted in the Italian economy and civil fabric for over a century – confirms its commitment to the world of culture alongside other Italian great institutions and leading lights.
