

Roma, July 27th 2017

RADIO MONTE CARLO IS THE OFFICIAL RADIO OF THE 74th INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL OF LA BIENNALE DI VENEZIA

Only with RMC exclusive interviews with the protagonists, the fascination of the red carpet, the best music with exclusive dj sets and all the stories from the Lido

RMC will be the 74th International Film Festival's official radio station, from 30 August to 9 September 2017, continuing the station's perennial and uniquely close relationship with the "Seventh Art".

Every day of the festival, Rosaria Renna will anchor two live broadcasts from the elegant RMC studios inside the former Casino Palace. First, she will have full coverage from 10.00 am to 1.00 pm. Then again at 7.15 pm, she will have an update with interviews of the protagonists of the day and a preview of the evening.

Our coverage will include presentations, premieres and interviews, with an eye on glamour and style during the RMC News.

Every night an exclusive RMC dj set will go along the red carpet parade, because music is a vital part of cinema.

The great cinema lives on Radio Monte Carlo, not only on the air, but also online, on radiomontecarlo.net website, with a wide section dedicated to the Festival, where you can find pictures, footage, interviews, podcast. RMC official FB page, Twitter, G+ and Instagram will also extensively report on the Festival.

Radio Monte Carlo is the point of reference for motion picture industry participating at the most important international film events, starting with the Oscar to Cannes, from Berlin to Festival de la Comédie, located in the Principato di Monaco, and it boasts excellent collaborations with prestigious production and distribution factories.