

La Biennale di Venezia
17th International Architecture Exhibition
How will we live together?

Meetings on Architecture

The Meetings on Architecture will complement the curatorial program for Biennale Architettura 2021 through a series of lectures and symposia that will bring together architects and scholars from around the world in order to address the question How will we live together? The specific themes of the panels run across the five scales of the exhibition. These include:

- Climate Change and Architecture
- Architecture Beyond the Anthropocene
- The Architectures of Reconstruction
- The Spaces of Listening
- The Architecture of Sports
- Architectural Education

Arsenale, Teatro Piccolo Arsenale
July 16th – 17th, 2021

Performance

Adam Kaasa (Canada, UK, 1982)
Thandi Loewenson (Zimbabwe, 1989)
David Burns (USA, 1972)
Fiction Feeling Frame (UK), at School of Architecture, Royal College of Art (UK)

The meetings will also include a special weekend celebrating the city of Venice.

These events will be mostly scheduled over weekends. A more detailed calendar of events will be announced soon on the website www.labiennale.org. All the events will be streamlined live.