CITY OF VENICE ACCESS FEE

Starting from April 2025, occasional visitors of the Ancient City of Venice are subject to the payment and booking of the Access Fee from 8.30 am to 4 pm on specific dates. This contribution must be paid and booked even if the arrival of the visitor in the Ancient City of Venice is earlier than the days or time indicated, if the stay includes the scheduled days and times.

We summarize below the main points of the regulations drafted by the Municipality of Venice available at <https://cda.veneziaunica.it/en>:

1) Day visitors: pay the Access Fee

Tourists visiting the Ancient City of Venice during the day and/or staying outside the Municipality of Venice pay and book. They can do so here:

<https://cda.veneziaunica.it/en/choose-the-date>

Please note that if the registration is made up to four days before the date of entry, the cost of the contribution is lower than if registration is made closer to the date of entry to the city.

2) Persons staying in accommodation facilities in the City of Venice, commuter workers, etc...: must make a reservation, DO NOT pay the Access Fee

The visitors staying in accommodation facilities in the City of Venice, do not pay, but must register. They can do so here: <https://cda.ve.it/en/>

3) Residents of, or people born in the Municipality of Venice, residents in the Veneto Region, commuter students, etc...: DO NOT book and DO NOT pay the Access Fee

Residents, of or people born in Venice, residents in the Veneto Region, commuter students do not have to book and do NOT pay the Access Fee.

For any further details on this matter, please refer directly to the Contribution Regulations: <https://cda.veneziaunica.it>.

Please note that La Biennale di Venezia disclaims any responsibility for non-compliance with the provisions of the regulations of the City of Venice.
