VISITORS

In the event of inappropriate behaviour towards works or persons, the security personnel have the right to ask the visitors involved to qualify and have them removed from the Exhibition.

In the event of persistent behaviour incompatible with the protection of security, the Direction of La Biennale di Venezia reserves the right to take all possible initiatives and measures, including the suspension of access to the Exhibition.

Groups accompanied by external guides are requested to limit the number of participants to twenty-five. In the event of crowding or other special conditions at the sole discretion of the Management, large groups will be asked to split up during the visit.

SERVICES FOR THE PUBLIC

Bar, restaurant, bookshop, info-point, toilets with changing facilities, courtesy transport service with electric cars for visitors with reduced mobility. To be requested from the staff on site and subject to availability: pushchairs, walkers, wheelchairs. Leashed animals of small/medium size are allowed only in the green area of the Giardini della Biennale.

In agreement with BAUADVISOR there is a paid service of Dog Sitter and Dog Walker that can be booked at least 24 hours in advance at the following link: <https://www.bauadvisor.it/>. The service by BAUADVISOR allows pet dog owners intending to visit the Exhibition to entrust their dog to the dog walkers of BAUADVISOR at the entrance of the Exhibition venue, at the established date and time until the end of the visit, when it will be returned to the owner.
